The following codes and references were used to prepare this book. These codes and references may be useful to review as you prepare for the NCIDQ exam. However, as the exam is not always based on the most current codes and standards, confirm applicable editions with NCIDQ.

CODES AND STANDARDS

CODES AND REFERENCES USED IN THIS BOOK

REFERENCES

American Institute of Architects (AIA). A101, Standard Form of Agreement Between Owner and Contractor where the basis of payment is a Stipulated Sum, 2007.

———. A151, Standard Form of Agreement Between Owner and Vendor for Furniture, Furnishings and Equipment where the basis of payment is a Stipulated Sum, 2007.

